Chile's National Conference

Misión Evangélica Uniformada (MEU) -- the military Christian fellowship of Chile -- held its 24th national conference in February, with approximately 100 people attending. In addition to military Christians from Chile, there were participants from Argentina, Bolivia, Peru, Spain, and the USA as well. Many of the sessions focused on helping MEU members know how to share Christ with others, and how to bring new believers into Christian fellowship.

Christian Fellowship: Real, Nourishing, and Satisfying

“Just getting together is not fellowship! We call it that, but actually ‘fellowship’ is a uniquely Christian word meaning something infinitely more real and nourishing and satisfying than the affairs, casual or formal, which pass for it today.

At most modern social functions, [people] come together like marbles...they just bump up against each other and ricochet around the room. Conversation is kept at a shallow, extraneous level. The atmosphere is usually noisy, confused, and hollow.

Life touches life with the barest contact – nobody gets too involved with anybody... What one knows is utterly immaterial. Who one knows is pathetically obvious. Generally, the more formal the occasion, the more superficial and insignificant the dialogue – the emptier the atmosphere, the more anonymous the crowd...

Fellowship is at the other end of the spectrum. It is [people] coming together like grapes – crushed, with skins of ego broken, the rich, fragrant, exhilarating juices of life mingling in the wine of sharing and understanding and caring. Fellowship is the fusion of personalities in the Person and presence of Jesus.

It is more than human...it isn't generated by zealous promotion or set up by clever organizers. It occurs when [people] gather in Jesus' name.” — Chaplain Richard C. Halverson

“What we have seen and heard we declare to you so that you, too, can have fellowship with us. Now this fellowship of ours is with the Father and with his Son, Jesus, the Messiah.” – 1 John 1:3
